

SkillsFuture for financial services

---

YOUNG STARTERS

FINANCIAL SECTOR - EARN AND LEARN PROGRAMME

For who?

- Fresh local polytechnic graduates

What kind of support?

- Sign-on incentive of $5,000 for Singaporeans
- Competitive starting salaries
- Industry-recognised certifications
- Wage increment and meaningful career advancement pathways
- Company-based projects to deepen skills

---

CURRENT PRACTITIONERS

FINANCIAL SECTOR STUDY AWARDS

For who?

- Early to mid-career Singaporean finance professionals

What kind of support?

- Up to $5,000 cash on top of existing course fee subsidies.
- Up to 100 study awards per year for post graduate programmes in areas such as specialised finance and finance technology

ALTERNATIVE CAREER PATHWAYS

For who?

- Mid-career Singaporean finance professionals

What kind of support?

- Up to 90 per cent training subsidy for Ministry of Education/Workforce Development Authority courses

---

INDUSTRY

FINANCIAL SECTOR TRIPARTITE COMMITTEE

- The NTUC and the Monetary Authority of Singapore will co-chair the committee and work with unions and businesses on the training needs of Singaporean finance professionals. The Association of Banks in Singapore and NTUC's Financial and Business Services clusters of unions will also be represented in the committee.