

Can Blues emulate Reds?

Chelsea will make Premier League history if they secure a berth in next season's Champions League.

No team have finished in the top four after accumulating fewer than 13 points from 10 games.

Jose Mourinho's Blues are currently 15th with 11 points but can take heart from Liverpool's class of 2006-07.

Rafael Benitez's men finished third that season – and made the Champions League final – despite picking up just 14 points from their first 10 games.
