

- Melting Arctic ice has opened shipping routes (see map on left).
- In warmer months, ships are starting to use the Northern Sea Route that bypasses Singapore, unlike the Suez Route (below).

