

Trail of terror

What is known about the suspects and clues found so far

Salah Abdeslam, 26

On the run

- French national who lived in Belgium
- French police say he was "potentially involved" in attacks
- He had been stopped at French-Belgian border check but later released

Bilal Hadfi, 20

Died outside Stade de France, according to French media

- French national who lived in Belgium

Ahmad al Mohammad, 25

Died outside Stade de France

- Syrian passport found; fingerprint matched that taken in Greece in October

Ismael Omar Mostefai, 29

Died at Bataclan concert hall

- French national of Algerian-Portuguese descent
- Petty criminal, radicalised since 2010
- Six people close to him have been detained

Samy Amimour, 28

Died at Bataclan

- French national
- Charged in October 2012 for conspiracy to commit terrorism over planned attack in Yemen
- Believed to have gone to Syria in 2013
- Three family members detained yesterday

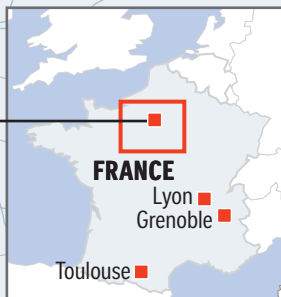

Ibrahim Abdeslam, 31

Died at Comptoir Voltaire cafe, according to French media

- French national who lived in Belgium

MONTREUIL

- Black Seat car thought to have been used in three shootings was found on Sunday

More than 150 raids for suspected militants were conducted in Lyon, Toulouse and Grenoble after Paris attacks

BELGIUM (Molenbeek)

- Investigators think attacks were planned in Brussels district
- Two cars found near Bataclan concert hall were hired in Belgium

- Seven arrested, including Mohamed Abdeslam, brother of Salah and Ibrahim Abdeslam, but he and four others have been released

GERMANY (Bavaria)

- 51-year-old arrested on Nov 5
- He appeared to be en route to Paris with cache of weapons

GREECE (Leros island)

- Syrian passport found in Stade de France belonged to refugee who registered in Greece on Oct 3