

Rogues gallery

Here's what is known about those who carried out the Nov 13 attacks on Paris as well as others key to investigations.

THE RINGLEADER - DEAD

Abdelhamid Abaaoud, 28

- Closed circuit TV coverage shows Abaaoud going into the Crois de Chavaux metro railway station in Paris, near where a Seat Leon used in the attacks was found, according to police.
- His fingerprints were found on one of three AK47 assault rifles left in the car, along with five full and 11 empty ammunition clips.
- Shot dead during a police raid on a flat in Saint-Denis on Nov 18.

THE ACCOMPLICES - DEAD

Hasna Ait Boulahcen, 26

- Believed to be a cousin of Abaaoud, she died during the assault but investigators have backtracked from initial reports that she blew herself up.

A third person died in the police assault and investigators have isolated the DNA, but are yet to identify the suspect.

THE ATTACKERS - DEAD

Brahim Abdeslam, 31

- A resident of Belgium, he blew himself up at Comptoir Voltaire cafe in Paris.
- He was the brother of Salah Abdeslam, who is on the run.

Bilal Hadfi, 20

- Blew himself up in the attack on Stade de France stadium.

Ismael Omar Mostefai, 29

- A Frenchman of Algerian descent involved in the Bataclan concert hall attack, he lived for a time in Chartres area, south-west of Paris.

"Ahmad Al Mohammad"

- At the scene of the stadium attack, a Syrian passport was found which bore the name of "Ahmad Al Mohammad" but the authorities believe it was a fake.

Samy Amimour, 28

- Involved in the Bataclan attack.

"Mohammad al-Mahmod"

- Blew himself up outside Gate H of the Stade de France. He was identified from the fingerprints he provided while posing as a migrant to gain entry to Europe alongside "Ahmad Al Mohammad".

- The French police released a picture of the bomber in the hope of identifying him on Sunday.

The third person involved in the Bataclan attack has yet to be identified.

ON THE RUN

Salah Abdeslam, 26

- The terror suspect is the subject of a massive police manhunt.
- Born in Brussels, his exact role in the attacks is unclear.
- Believed to have rented a black VW Polo car and a Renault Clio used in the attacks on the concert hall and the stadium.

SUSPECTS IN CUSTODY

Abraimi Lazez, 39

- Arrested for helping Abdeslam after his return to Belgium.
- The authorities arrested Lazez after finding a handgun and blood in his car.

Hamza Attou and Mohammed Amri

- Charged with participating in terrorist activity.
- The two men were seen by witnesses and captured in videos as they passed the Belgian border from Paris the morning after the terror attacks with Abdeslam but were allowed to proceed.

Jawad Bendaoud

- Believed to have provided accommodation to the terrorists in Saint-Denis.
- Prosecutors extended his custody for a fifth day on Sunday.

Others

- Belgian police and military personnel arrested another 16 people in joint raids on Sunday, and five more on Monday.