

The Syrian crisis in figures

Syria's war has killed more than 260,000 people, uprooted more than half the population and left the country in ruins since it erupted nearly five years ago.

CASUALTIES

260,758

people killed between March 2011 and Dec 31, 2015.

76,000

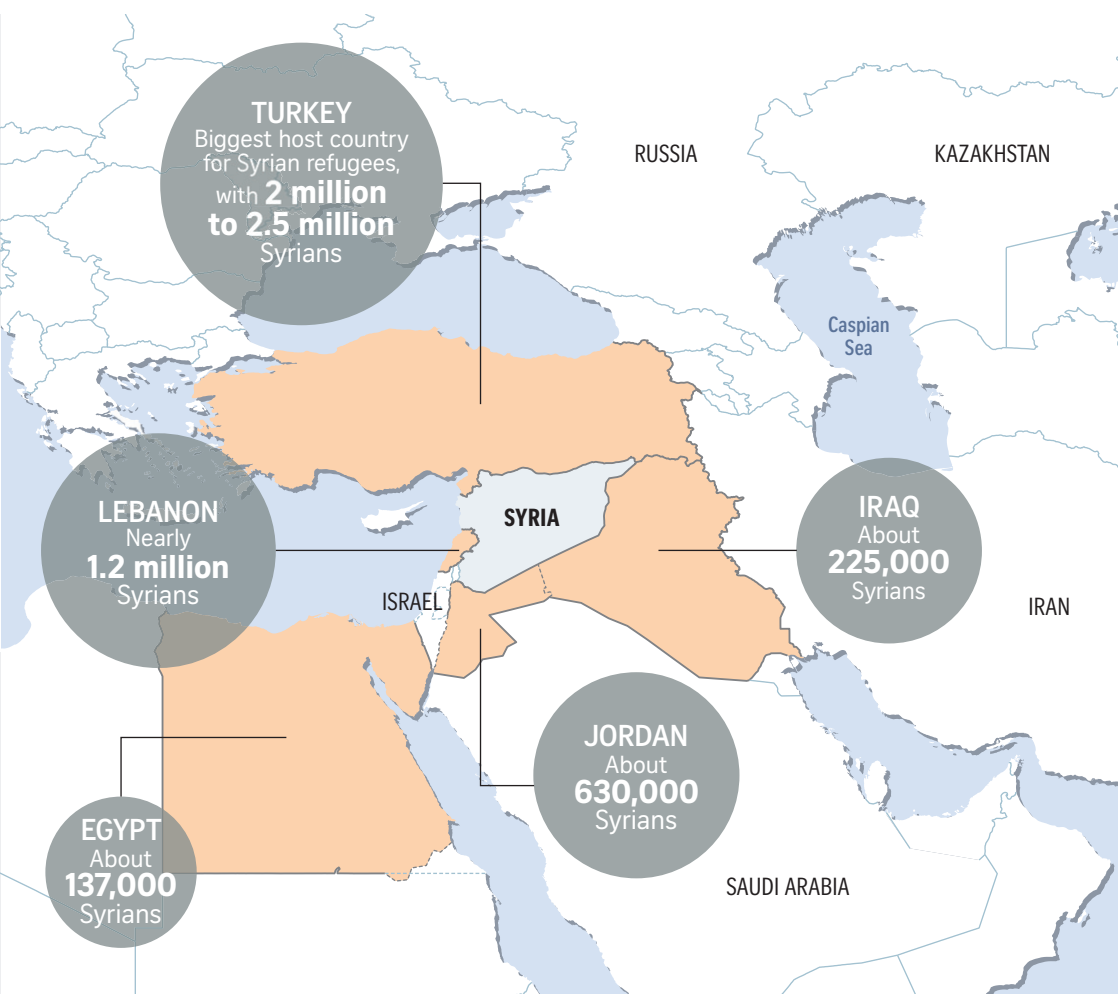

of them were civilians.

DISPLACED

13.5m

of the country's 23 million people.

4.7 million Syrians have fled to neighbouring countries

Western-backed Free Syrian Army fighters preparing to launch a shell towards forces loyal to the Syrian government in Deraa on Jan 11.

A woman inspecting the damage at a camp for internally displaced people that was hit by shelling in Latakia on Sunday.