

Stories of War

These are some of the tours that the National Heritage Board is presenting with heritage experts, community groups and its Museum Roundtable member-museums to commemorate the 74th anniversary of the battle for Singapore.

Mount Imbiah Battery

Tours on: Feb 13, 20 and 27

Visit one of the few surviving late 19th century gun batteries and its underground passages which were built to defend Singapore.

Sign up for the tours at www.museums.com.sg/programme-and-exhibitions/battle-for-Singapore

The Adam Park Project Tours

Tours on: Feb 13, 14 and 27

Adam Park is the site of the last battle for Singapore. After the British surrender, it was used as a prisoner-of-war camp. Delve into the exciting world of battlefield archaeology and learn more about the site through the archaeological materials unearthed.

Battle of Pasir Panjang

Tours on: Feb 12, 13, 19, 20, 26 and 27

The Pasir Panjang Ridge was a strategic location of military importance as it overlooked south-western Singapore. It is also the site of one of the last battles before the British surrender of Singapore.

In Remembrance of WWII at Bukit Brown Cemetery

Tours on: Feb 14 and 21

Discover untold tales of locals buried at Bukit Brown Cemetery, including the story of a young girl who was about to marry. Her life was cut short while attempting to protect her family from Japanese bombs.

Tiong Bahru WWII Stories

Tours on: Feb 13 and 27

Join Tiong Bahru heritage volunteers on a tour of the neighbourhood's pre-war structures as they share stories of war experienced by residents of one of Singapore's oldest public housing estates.