

New sturdy houses

1. Rice bags are filled with rocks and soil.

2. They are stacked on top of one another in a staggered fashion and held together by barbed wires. A trench is dug underground to form the foundation for the house.

3. The wall is plastered with materials like mud or clay.

4. A roof made of zinc or straw is placed on top.