

Links between Brussels and Paris attackers

Belgian officials are uncovering evidence that links two of the suicide bombers in Tuesday's attacks in Brussels to the Nov 13 Paris attacks.

Airport attackers

DEAD
Najim Laachraoui, 24
Blew himself up at the airport.

SOUGHT
Unidentified
Believed to have fled.

DEAD
Ibrahim el-Bakraoui, 29
Blew himself up at the airport.

Brothers

Subway station attacker

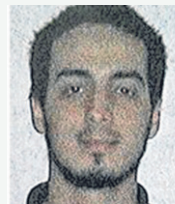

DEAD
Khalid el-Bakraoui, 27
Carried out a suicide attack at the subway station. Unclear if he was involved in airport attacks. Officials believe he used a false name to rent two properties: one in Forest and one in Charleroi.

Apartment in Forest

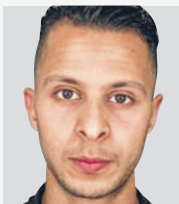

Salah Abdeslam's fingerprints were found during a March 15 raid of this apartment.

Safe house in Charleroi

Fingerprints of two Paris attackers were found during a search in December.

DEAD
Najim Laachraoui, 24
His DNA was found on explosives used in the Paris attacks. His fingerprints and Abdeslam's were found in a Brussels apartment in December.

ARRESTED
Salah Abdeslam, 26
Believed to be the only surviving participant in the Paris attacks. Arrested by the Belgian authorities on March 18.

SOUGHT
Mohamed Abrini, 31
Seen at a gas station with Abdeslam two days before the Paris attacks. Actively sought by the Belgian and French authorities.