

Bishan versus Bidadari

BISHAN

Type	Mature housing estate
Age	Bishan New Town built from 1980s
Size	6.95 km ²
Train access	Bishan station (North South, Circle lines), Marymount station (Circle Line)
Distance to city centre	Five stations from Orchard, nine stations from Raffles Place
Schools	Raffles Institution, Catholic High, St Joseph's Institution, Kuo Chuan Presbyterian Primary, Guangyang Primary, Guangyang Secondary, Whitley Secondary, MOE Language Centre, etc.
Key facilities	Junction 8 shopping mall, Bishan-Ang Mo Kio Park, public library, stadium and swimming complex, Upper Thomson eateries, bus and MRT interchange
History	Formerly housed the Peck San Theng cemetery

BIDADARI

Type	District in mature estate of Toa Payoh
Age	First batch of housing launched in November 2015
Size	0.93 km ²
Train access	Bartley station (Circle Line), Woodleigh station (North East Line). Also nearby: Potong Pasir station (North East Line)
Distance to city centre	Seven stations from Orchard and from Raffles Place
Schools	Maris Stella High, Cedar Girls' Secondary, Cedar Primary
Key facilities	Bidadari Park with lake, green corridor for cycling and walking, underground bus interchange and food centre
History	Formerly housed the Bidadari cemetery