Enhancing security at airport

Body scanners have been installed at Terminal 3 as part of a trial to enhance security screening.

1 Traveller stands inside the scanner, hands above his head, for a few seconds.

2 If the traveller is cleared, no image is produced. If an object is detected, an image comes up and the item is shown.

3 The security officer does a physical check.