

What to do at the Singapore Coffee Festival

Check out the more than 100 cafes, roasteries and coffee purveyors at the festival.

1 ST Reading Room. Grab a cup of coffee and chat with ST columnists on topics including property, cars, politics and food.

2 Movies@SCF. Catch Singapore movies such as 7 Letters (above), 881, Eating Air and Singapore Dreaming under the stars in the carpark area. Entry is free.

4 Boxgreen. Social enterprises such as Singapore's Boxgreen, which sells healthy snacks in a monthly subscription box, are among the highlights at The Good Market.

3 Good Coffee Tokyo. Sip on speciality coffee brewed by visiting baristas such as Mr Yuji Otsuki of the cafe (above) in Japan.

5 CMCr Lab. Pick up latte art and fundamental barista skills from workshops by Common Man Coffee Roasters head trainer Lucky Salvador.

The Singapore Coffee Festival at the F1 Pit Building will be open to the public from Friday to Sunday from 11am to 9pm.

Tickets on sale at Sistic at $18 each, or $44 for a group of four. The price includes single-day access to the festival and all workshops, lab sessions, ST chats and live music, as well as a goodie bag. Discounts are available for DBS and POSB cardholders. VIP tickets on sale at $43 include access to the VIP lounge with complimentary cocktail and canapes.

Ticket holders must bring their printed tickets as proof of purchase. Admission is free for children under 12 accompanied by an adult.

The nearest MRT station is Promenade. Take Exit A.

Limited parking is available at $10 per entry. Festivalgoers can also park at the Singapore Flyer, Marina Square, Suntec City, Raffles City, Esplanade and The Ritz-Carlton, Millenia Singapore.

