

Money matters

Town councils are primarily funded by service and conservancy charges (S&CC) collected from residents and shop tenants. Town councils decide on the S&CC rates for their towns, and also receive an annual operating grant from the Government. In future, they will have to maintain three funds: operating fund, sinking fund, and lift replacement fund.

NOTE: Diagram is not drawn to scale.

Source: MND STRAITS TIMES GRAPHICS