Key battles

Khairul Amri v Shahrul Saad

A knee injury has led to a start-stop season for the Singaporean marksman but the 31-year-old is approaching full fitness and has looked sharp in recent weeks with two well-taken goals in the S-League for the Garena Young Lions last month. Shahrul is a versatile defender and was instrumental in guiding Perak to the Malaysia FA Cup semi-finals.

Hariss Harun v Hadin Azman

Singapore's defensive shield will need to be at the top of his game as he seeks to contain the threat of the Tigers' tricky and pacy winger. Hadin's six goals for Felda United are evidence of his ability to get into the box and score. Hariss likes to get forward to support the attack but must be mindful of not leaving space for Hadin to exploit.

Baihakki Khaizan v Norshahrul Idlan Talaha

The 30-year-old Norshahrul cut short his family holiday in Thailand to answer manager Ong Kim Swee's call to lead Malaysia's attack. The Terengganu forward is vastly experienced and likes to drop back to orchestrate attacks. Baihakki is excellent in the air but prefers to defend from deep and will not want to be dragged away from his position at centre-back.
