The main developments since the start of the allied push The battle for Mosul against the ISIS-held city on Oct 17.

Before Oct 17

30,000

Kurdish and Iragi government forces encircled the Mosul region, with air support from the international coalition based in Qavvarah.

Oct 19

Rapid advances in the south and east, with several villages taken from ISIS. Allied forces advance on Qaragosh, the biggest Christian city in Irag.

Oct 28

New offensives and advances north of Mosul. Bashiga surrounded, Qaragosh disputed, Iragi forces 5km east of Mosul.

Fighters deployed at start of offensive

Iraqi and Kurdish forces

7.500 US and allied forces

2.000 Turkish forces

3.000 to 5,000 militants

Human toll as of Oct 28

▶ At least 12,000 have fled the fighting

▶ Fighters killed* 900 militants 57 Iraqi soldiers 30 Kurds

SYRIA Mosul

IRAN

* As of Oct 25, according to the coalition