

Active mobility takes centre stage at Car-Free Sunday SG

- Road closures extended to noon

Singapore, 21 February 2017 – Car-Free Sunday SG has become a popular event for the community to try out different forms of active mobility while enjoying the car-free streets. The upcoming Car-Free Sunday SG on 26 February will see various elements coming together to promote active mobility and encourage a car-lite lifestyle.

Riding on the theme of “Safe Riders Sunday”, this Sunday’s event aims to promote responsible behaviour among cyclists, users of personal mobility devices (PMDs) and pedestrians on shared paths. As part of “Safe Riders Sunday”, the public can look forward to a variety of activities organised by community partners such as Lovecycling SG, Wheelies and iWheel4fun to promote safe cycling. In addition, there will be a “Personal Mobility Roadshow” where visitors can try out as well as purchase bicycles and PMDs. There will also be free bicycle rentals offered by bikeshare companies to promote active mobility.

Road closures extended to noon

Starting from this month’s edition of Car-Free Sunday SG, participants will be able to enjoy the full 5.5km car-free route from 8am to noon. This is made possible with the extension of the road closures within the Central Business District and the Telok Ayer Loops by an additional hour from 11am to 12pm, similar to the Civic District Loop. This will give participants more flexibility to enjoy the activities over a longer duration.

See table below for the road closure hours and Annex A for the road closure map:
