

More jobs in healthcare

The Government is investing $24 million in various schemes to help Singaporeans take up good healthcare jobs.

NURSES

Healthcare Graduate Studies Award

New two-year Overseas Graduate Entry Masters Scholarship for university graduates to switch to nursing

Professional conversion programmes

Up to $16,000 on-the-job training support for employers for each mid-career entrant

Return-To-Nursing Programme

Fully sponsored course fees, salaries paid during training and bonus of $3,000 to $5,000 for nurses joining community care

SUPPORT STAFF

Basic care assistants

More part-time positions to provide personal care and $10,000 on-the-job training support for employers for each entrant

9,000
more jobs

OTHER PMETS*

Professional conversion programme

For administrative and executive positions, for example, hospital operations, human resource and finance

Senior management associate scheme

For managerial positions in community care

Care coordinator associates

New job positions in regional health systems to coordinate care services for patients

* Professionals, managers, executives and technicians

Community care workers

Enhanced Place-and-Train programme for newly recruited healthcare and therapy assistants, and $10,000 on-the-job training support for employers for each entrant