

Stalwarts of Blues' success

Who were the key players behind Chelsea's fifth Premier League title win?

EDEN HAZARD

Out of form and confidence last season, the Belgian playmaker has regained his flair for goals and assists.

DAVID LUIZ

A defensive rock in his second spell with Chelsea, a far cry from his error-prone first stint from 2011 to 2014.

DIEGO COSTA

Has channelled his aggressive instincts to poaching goals instead of provoking opponents.

MARCUS ALONSO, VICTOR MOSES

Two unheralded journeymen who fit into the wing-back roles with ease, handling both defensive and attacking responsibilities seamlessly.

ANTONIO CONTE

Transformed the poisonous dressing-room atmosphere under Jose Mourinho into a united, hardworking unit. Highly demanding in training and astute in changing into a successful formation early in the season.

N'GOLO KANTE

Just as vital to Chelsea's title win as he was to Leicester's triumph last season. Constantly running and disrupting opponents.

