

Flying high

From its opening in July 1981, Changi Airport has grown its passenger numbers and city links to become one of the busiest international airports in the world.

Legend
1981
Now

Annual passenger numbers
4.3m
(July to December)

58.7m
(2016)

Aircraft parking bays
45
169

Terminal floor area
286,000
sq m 1,271,000
sq m

City links
67
380

Airlines
34
122

Cargo volume 100,354
tonnes (July to December)
1.97m
tonnes (2016)

Annual passenger-handling capacity
12m
66m

Plane take-offs and landings
27,337
(July to December)
360,490

F&B outlets
7
140

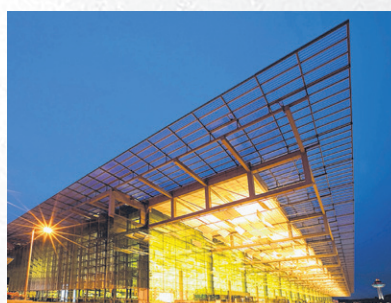

(Including the future T4)

Shops
12
400

(Including the future T4)

Airport emergency service
13 firefighting and support vehicles, four boats
69 firefighting and support vehicles, four boats

Runways/Terminals
1/1
2/3
(T4 to open in second half of 2017)

ST FILE PHOTOS
STRAITS TIMES GRAPHICS

