

#guesswithST

Where is this spot in our little red dot?

ST's photojournalists have scoured Singapore to snap their favourite landmarks from obscure angles. Guess which landmark it is and stand a chance to win NDP preview tickets! To take part, visit str.sg/guesswithST and explain in 52 words or less what this place means for you and/or Singapore.

Each photograph is open for submissions over two days before a new one is introduced. In total, there will be seven chances to #guesswithST during this contest. Up to four pairs of NDP tickets can be won each round.
