

Special features

Accessories, such as a camera and torchlight, can be mounted on the helmet.

25 per cent

lighter than other para-aramid helmets of comparable size.

Maintains lower manufacturing costs due to para-aramid being one-third the price of polyethylene.

Significantly reduces risk of serious head trauma compared to helmets of similar weight.