

T4 open house

From today until Aug 20, Changi Airport's newest terminal, T4, will open its doors to the public. Actual operations will start later this year. If you are one of the 200,000 people who have booked free tickets for the preview, here are some highlights to look out for:

Nine airlines will operate from T4

AirAsia

Four of them are under AirAsia. Can you guess which are the other five, based on these logos?

Immersive Wall

Be amazed

One of the 16 clips shown on this 70m by 5m LED display is entitled "The Fresco" (below), which simulates a travertine (terrestrial sedimentary rock) finishing, similar to the material used at the departure and arrival halls. At nearly 8.3 million pixels, the three-dimensional sculptures look very real, until...

Spot the difference

If you happen to be here before the show — Peranakan Love Story — begins, stand from a distance and see if you can tell which part of the facade is real and which part is fake.

The greenery

There are 186 large trees in T4

And each is hydrated by an automated fogging system. The mist also serves as a humidifier for anyone standing close to the tree.
