

Burning Rohingya villages

Amnesty International says evidence from various sources, including satellite imagery, shows "the Myanmar security forces are setting northern Rakhine state ablaze in a targeted campaign to push the Rohingya people out of Myanmar".

INTENSITY OF FIRES DETECTED BY SATELLITE (AUG 25-SEPT 11)*

- Aug 25: Coordinated attacks on 30 police posts and an army base in the townships of Maungdaw, Buthidaung and Rathedaung
- Sept 8: Violence may have killed more than 1,000 people: UN rapporteur

*According to Amnesty International. Due to sensor limitations, actual number of fires is likely higher.

Rakhine - a state in Myanmar and home to some one million Rohingya Muslims

REFUGEES FLEEING MYANMAR'S RAKHINE TO BANGLADESH

NOTE: Data as announced by UN

Source: AGENCE FRANCE-PRESSE STRAITS TIMES GRAPHICS