

How they compare

NOTE: Over the past decade, the MSCI All-Country World Index fell as much as 52.16 per cent during the global financial crisis but has weathered major global crises to gain 48.74 per cent as of September 2017.

NOTE: Holding cash would have yielded 0.3 per cent over the past six years but an investor in Singapore equities via the STI would have gained 46.26 per cent. During the same period, an investor of global equities via the MSCI All-Country World Index would have gained 111.93 per cent.
