

Paris climate summit: the key commitments

Insurer AXA

to stop investing in coal, divest €2.5 billion ($4 billion) from companies with more than 30 per cent revenue from coal power

World Bank

will stop financing upstream oil and gas projects from 2019

237

companies to improve their assessment of climate risk, including the 20 largest banks in the world

More than 200

global investors to pressure the 100 largest corporate greenhouse gas emitters – BP, Chevron, Airbus, Ford, Glencore – to reduce their emissions

Coalition

of sovereign investment funds to demand more rigorous environmental corporate governance from the firms they invest in

US$600m

($810 million) from the European Commission and Bill Gates Foundation to support agricultural research