

Gleedman's TAKE

You can no longer swim because the pool is always packed.

You wait a long time for the lift because it stops at every floor.

And when it finally arrives, you can't enter because it is filled with luggage.

...if the rule for condos to offer Airbnb-style home-sharing gets the green light.