

What caused the cracks

LTA's findings:

- Water had accumulated at the roadside due to the heavy rain and seeped under the road base. The built-up water pressure caused the temporary section of the road to heave, resulting in the cracks on the road surface.

Source: LTA
STRAITS TIMES GRAPHICS