

Possible links between Russia and two Koreas

South Korea's President Moon Jae-in envisions a three-way cooperation in railways, natural gas and electricity between the two Koreas and Russia once a peace regime is established on the Korean peninsula.

