

A stylized illustration of a postage stamp. The stamp has a white background with a teal border featuring a white scalloped pattern. On the left side, there is a detailed illustration of St. Basil's Cathedral in Moscow, showing its iconic red brick walls and colorful, multi-tiered onion domes in shades of blue, green, yellow, and red. The word "Moscow" is printed in a large, bold, grey sans-serif font across the top right of the white area. Below the cathedral illustration, the word "POSTAGE" is printed in a smaller, grey, all-caps sans-serif font. To the right of the cathedral, there are five horizontal wavy lines, each composed of a series of small black dots, representing cancellation marks on a postage stamp.

Moscow

POSTAGE