

Parliament in numbers

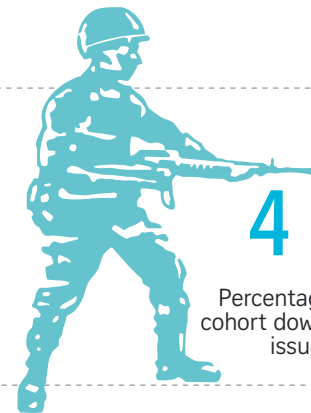

30 mins

Time spent on questions and answers on the national service deferment request by footballer Ben Davis.

19 questions filed

by MPs on the SingHealth cyber attack. This is the highest number of questions filed for a single topic in this term of Parliament.

About 4 per cent

Percentage of each national service cohort downgraded for mental health issues over the past five years.

3,000

Number of new rental flats being built. There are now about 60,000 rental flats.

130

Number of foreign domestic workers who came to Singapore found to be too young – below 23 years old – to work here each year in the past five years.

5 sectors

The administrative & support services, construction, education, infocomm and professional services sectors were responsible for the bulk of companies put on the Fair Consideration Framework watch list for unfairly favouring foreigners in their hiring.

11,000 tonnes

Amount of waste diverted from the incinerators to be reused and recycled since the launch of the National Environment Agency's 3R Fund in 2009.

