

Worsening floods

The worst floods in a century caused by heavy monsoon rain in the Indian state of Kerala has killed over 300 people. Intense precipitation over the last week has forced hundreds of thousands into relief camps and caused the closure of one of its main airports.

Accumulated precipitation from Aug 10 to 16

Source: REUTERS SUNDAY TIMES GRAPHICS