

Attitudes towards work-life harmony

Employers

Said their employees should have the flexibility to manage their own time as long as they meet work targets and deadlines

Said employees should take work home after office hours

Employees

Said their supervisor provides them with flexibility to manage their own time as long as they meet work targets and deadlines

Said they are expected to bring work home after office hours

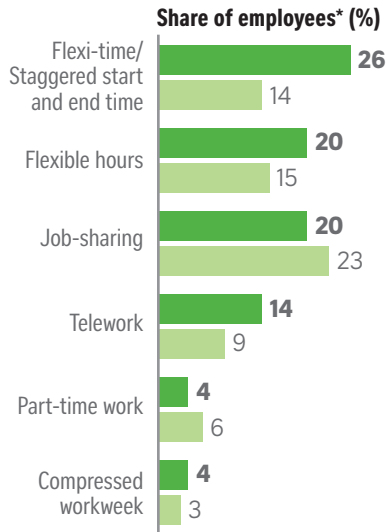

Would consider leaving a company if there is a lack of work-life programmes

More using flexi-work arrangements

2018 2014

*Among those who use work-life programmes at work