HOW GOOD ARE GIANTS?

Ivo Karlovic, the joint-tallest player at 2.1m, has reached the quarter-finals of a Grand Slam only once in a 19-year career, at Wimbledon 10 years ago.

Juan Martin del Potro and Marin Cilic, both 1.98m and US Open champions, are the tallest to have won a Slam.

Roger Federer (20) and Rafael Nadal (18), both 1.85m, and the 1.88m Novak Djokovic (15) have shared 53 Slam titles in total.
