

Women's World Cup Final

UNITED STATES

Coach Jill Ellis

NETHERLANDS

Coach Sarina Wiegman

Today, 11pm (Singapore time)

• Lyon, France

Parc Olympique Lyonnais

Fifa ranking

1

Best performance

Champions (1991, 1995, 2015)

Goals scored

24

Conceded

3

Fifa ranking

8

Best performance

Round of 16 (2015)

Goals scored

11

Conceded

3

Average shots on target

8.1 | 4.6

Average possession

57.2% | 57.5%

Passing accuracy

77.8% | 78.8%

ROAD TO THE FINAL

Group stage

Beat Thailand 13-0 | Beat New Zealand 1-0
Beat Chile 3-0 | Beat Cameroon 3-1
Beat Sweden 2-0 | Beat Canada 2-1

Round of 16

Beat Spain 2-1 | Beat Japan 2-1

Quarter-finals

Beat France 2-1 | Beat Italy 2-0

Semi-finals

Beat England 2-1 | Beat Sweden 1-0

Alex Morgan
Striker

Danielle van de Donk
Midfielder

1

This will be the first competitive meeting between the United States and the Netherlands. Their previous two meetings, both international friendlies, ended in 3-1 wins for the US.

2

Both teams are hoping their key players will be fit for the final. US forward Megan Rapinoe missed the semi-final win over England because of a hamstring strain, while Dutch winger Lieke Martens was replaced at half-time with a toe injury in the semi-final win over Sweden.