

Match points: Man United v Chelsea

Key battles

Aaron Wan-Bissaka v Christian Pulisic

Wan-Bissaka is United's new £45 million ($$75 million) right-back. No defender won more tackles in last season's Premier League than the former Crystal Palace player, who replaces Antonio Valencia. This is a battle of debuts: Chelsea signed the American winger Pulisic in January but then loaned him back to Borussia Dortmund.

Paul Pogba v N'Golo Kante

France teammates but opposites in many respects. If Kante's commitment is taken for granted, and he should relish a deeper role after being pushed upfield in Sarri's 4-3-3, Pogba's attitude will be scrutinised. He wanted to join Real Madrid in the summer and United have kept him. When the mercurial Pogba plays well, so do they.

Anthony Martial v Kurt Zouma

Another all-French affair and two with a point to prove. Zouma was loaned out to Everton last season but, with Antonio Rudiger injured and David Luiz sold, he could become a first choice. Martial has been used as a striker in pre-season, with Marcus Rashford operating off the left at times, and could be allowed to lead the line again.
