

Singapore's trade with China

Singapore's largest trading partner is China. Singapore and China share a free trade agreement that eliminates tariffs for 95 per cent of Singapore's exports to China.

Singapore's top 3 export partners (2019)

Singapore's top 3 import partners (2019)

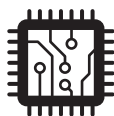

Singapore's top imports from China

1 Telephone sets, including mobile phones, and devices for transmitting and receiving voice and image, among other data

2 Petroleum oil

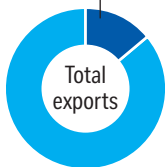

3 Electronic integrated circuits

Trade in semi-finished goods

Singapore

China: 14%

China: 5%

Regional average

China: 26%

China: 19%

