

How Malaysia's Parliament stacks up now

- Total seats: 222
- Minimum needed to control House: 112

PM Muhyiddin Yassin's supporters

Bersatu* (Muhyiddin bloc)	31	Barisan Nasional (BN) is a formal coalition between Umno, MCA, and MIC. Umno also has an electoral pact with the Islamist PAS.
Parti Islam SeMalaysia (PAS)	18
Gabungan Bersatu Sabah alliance (GBS)	3
Malaysian Chinese Association (MCA)	2
Malaysian Indian Congress (MIC)	1
Gabungan Parti Sarawak alliance (GPS)	18	Umno and GPS have said they are not part of a formal PN coalition but are backing Tan Sri Muhyiddin as PM.
Umno	39
Total	112

Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad's supporters

Democratic Action Party (DAP)	42	PH coalition now led by Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, designated opposition leader in Parliament.
Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR)	39
Parti Amanah Negara (Amanah)	11
Bersatu* (Mahathir bloc)	4	"Confidence and supply" partners of previous PH government, which back Dr Mahathir as PM.
Parti Warisan Sabah (Warisan)	9
United Progressive Kinabalu Organisation	1
United Sarawak Party	1
Total	107

MPs with undetermined loyalty:

- Independents: 2
- Bersatu: 1 – Dr Maszlee Malik, who supported Mr Muhyiddin, but now disagrees with partnering Umno.

NOTE: *Bersatu – Parti Pribumi Bersatu Malaysia, split into Mr Muhyiddin's and Dr Mahathir's factions.

PN – Perikatan Nasional, Mr Muhyiddin's loose alliance.

PH – Pakatan Harapan, the opposition pact comprising PKR, DAP and Amanah.