

Number of Singapore citizens and permanent residents reported with HIV/Aids

A total of 220 individuals were newly diagnosed with HIV infection from January to October this year. This year's number is projected to dip below 300 for the first time since 2003, which reported 242 cases.

*Figures from Jan to Oct

Source: MINISTRY OF HEALTH STRAITS TIMES GRAPHICS