

Some

0.2%

of all Covid-19 patients become critically ill and require ICU care.

But only one in three ICU patients is fully vaccinated.

Unvaccinated
people are nearly

14

times more likely to become
critically ill or die,
compared with those who have been vaccinated.